My Story

I grew up in Tulsa, Oklahoma to a great family who wanted to raise boys right. We acknowledged God and made attending church a priority. I met Jesus when I was 13 while reading the Gospel of John on the floor of my bedroom. I remember speaking the words, "God, if what this says is true, I have to put my faith in Jesus." Everything changed from that point forward. The old life of slavery to sin was put down and the new life in Christ began. I felt a strong sense of calling into ministry at 16, and planned my college training accordingly. After college I met my wife and began a vocational ministry career in Little Rock, AR. Four years later we made the transition 1800 miles away from family to Fresno, CA. We have been serving faithfully here for the past 9 years.

Ministry Philosophy & Vision

The past few years, God has been refining my philosophy and vision for ministry. I feel confident that the local church exists to equip the saints for the work of ministry. My desire would be for people to love God, and love each other well, where they live, work and play. God's Word is central and essential for proclaiming the Gospel to a world in desperate need of Jesus. My vision is to see people be and make disciples. I hope to see those people marked as Christians who are humbly submitted at the heart level and be biblically formed in all areas of their life. I desire to primarily operate out of:

1.) leading the local church through team, 2.) preaching & teaching from God's Word, and 3.) shepherding the flock of God.
